HOLY COMMUNION
"DO THIS IN REMEMBRANCE OF ME"

THE GENERAL CONFESSION:

We say this corporate prayer as an acknowledgement of our shortcomings, as well as our commitment to God to live in a new way in response to God's commitment to forgive us.

Almighty God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, maker of all things, judge of all people, we acknowledge and bewail our manifold sins and wickedness which we from time to time most grievously have committed by thought, word, and deed against Your divine majesty, provoking most justly Your wrath and indignation against us. We do earnestly repent and are heartily sorry for these our misdoings; the remembrance of them is grievous unto us. Have mercy upon us, have mercy upon us, most merciful Father for your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ's sake; forgive us all that is past, and grant that we may ever hereafter serve and please You in newness of life, to the honor and glory of Your name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE CONSECRATION

The Elder recites this prior to the congregation partaking of the communion elements—requesting that God bless the elements and the people as we consume them as an act of obedience and request for forgiveness.

All glory, power, and honor to you, Almighty God, Holy Father, Creator of heaven and earth, who did make us in Your own image. And when we fell into sin, You of Your tender mercy did give Your only begotten Son Jesus Christ, to take our nature upon Him, and to suffer death upon the cross for our redemption: Who made there, by His own oblation of Himself once offered, a full and perfect sacrifice for the whole world: And instituted and commanded us to continue this perpetual memorial of His precious death until His coming again. For in the night in which He was betrayed, He took bread; and when He had given thanks to you, He broke it, and gave it to His disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is My body which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of Me".

THE CONSECRATION

The Pastor or Chief Celebrant recites this prior to the congregation partaking of the communion elements—requesting that God bless the elements and the people as we consume them as an act of obedience and request for forgiveness.

In the same way also, after supper, He took the cup; and when He had given thanks, He gave it to them and said, "Drink this, all of you; for this is My blood of the new covenant, which is poured out for you and many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me."

Therefore, with this bread and cup we remember the life our Lord offered for us. And, believing the witness of his resurrection, we await his coming in power to share with us the great and promised feast.

Gracious God, you are holy indeed, the fountain of all holiness. Bless and sanctify these gifts with your Holy Spirit and bless us to your service that we may faithfully receive in unity and peace the body and blood of our Lord Jesus Christ.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

We pray this prayer together as a sign of Thanksgiving to the Lord for the gift of forgiveness and relationship that Holy Communion offers us.

Pastor & Congregation:

Our Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name.
Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth,
As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation,
But deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom,
The power, and the glory, For ever and ever. Amen.
